

Porci's Ocean Patrol Activity Sheet

Microbeads - Comprehension (level 1)

Circle the correct answers.

1. Where do microbeads from shampoo bubbles end up?
 - a) in the ocean
 - b) nowhere, they dissolve
 - c) in the atmosphere

2. Microbeads are 'super small pieces of plastic' that are around:
 - a) one centimetre in size
 - b) one millimetre in size
 - c) one metre in size

3. Microbeads are:
 - a) no bigger than a grain of sand
 - b) bigger than a grain of rice
 - c) easy for people to see

4. Microbeads have an impact on:
 - a) only sea creatures
 - b) only humans
 - c) sea creatures, humans and the environment

5. If your bathroom products contain microbeads, you should:
 - a) just throw them in the bin
 - b) keep buying the same product
 - c) ship them back to the manufacturer, explaining why you don't want to use their product.