

Porci's Ocean Patrol Activity Sheet

True or False?

Here are some statements from Porci's Ocean Patrol Episode 7. Are they true or false? Circle your answer.

1. You need at least 3 players on flat, grassy ground to play Parntu.

TRUE

2. Parntu is the name of a ball made of crocodile skin.

FALSE – Parntu is a ball made of possum skin.

3. Aboriginal people made things from all natural materials, making sure nothing goes to waste.

TRUE

4. Tiny pieces of plastic can only be eaten by small sea animals.

FALSE – tiny microplastics can be eaten by both small animals like zooplankton and big animals like whales.

5. Plastic straws can hold their shape for 2 years.

FALSE – Plastic straws can hold their shape for 200 years.

6. Choosing a bamboo toothbrush instead of plastic is sustainable swap.

TRUE

7. We should recycle our hard plastics.

TRUE

8. Porcupinefish only live in Northern Australia.

FALSE – Porcupinefish live in Southern Australia

9. Porcupinefish have no teeth inside their mouth and slurp all their food.

FALSE – Porcupinefish have fused teeth like a sharp beak and crunch all their food.

Porci's Ocean Patrol Activity Sheet

10. Crabs, clams and sea urchins are the favourite foods of a porcupinefish.

TRUE

11. Nocturnal animals, or night owls, look for food when the sun is up.

FALSE – Nocturnal animals look for food when the moon is up, at nighttime.

12. Don't ever catch and eat a porcupinefish, they have sharp spines and poison on the inside called tetrodotoxin.

TRUE

13. Porcupinefish swallow water or air to puff up and put their spikes up when they feel in danger.

TRUE