

Porci's Ocean Patrol Activity Sheet

Western Blue Groper - Comprehension (level 2)

1. What can happen when the largest Western Blue Groper male disappears?

2. List the main two species that the Western Bue Groper controls by eating?

3. Circle the correct answer. A Western Blue Groper is fully grown when they are:

- a) 50 years old
- b) 30 years old
- c) 2 years old

Finish these sentences:

4. The Western Blue Groper have faced some issues from spear fishers and overfishing, these pressures have left the Western Blue Groper

5. A Western Blue Groper can live up to 70 years old and can grow as long as

6. The Western Blue Groper is the largest bony fish species in South Australia, but they are not actually a Groper they are _____.

Porci's Ocean Patrol Activity Sheet

Colours of a Western Blue Groper:

7. In the box below draw 2 Western Blue Groper. Colour 1 with the colours of a female/young Western Blue Groper and the second the colours of a male. Label which one is the male, and which one is female.